I hope this email finds everyone doing well. I just wanted to let you know about a couple of things.

New Single!

I've been back in the studio recording, and I've just released a new tune called "Monday I Woke Up Purple". It's a folky-rocky-pop tune about a kid who keeps waking up not quite himself.

You can get it on CD Baby HERE. It should be out on iTunes in a week or so.

Touring

I would like to sincerely thank everyone who came to my shows this summer as well as the people who booked me, let me crash on their couch and even rounded up sound equipment for me after mine was damaged en route to Florida. You guys all rock and make it possible for me to do what I feel like I was meant to do ...make music for kids and their families.

Speaking of which, I hit a small milestone this summer. I can now say that I've performed in every US state except for Hawaii. I had a small personal celebration in the middle of the street in Brattleboro, VT to mark the occasion. It has been suggested to me that I try a Kickstarter campaign to try and get to Hawaii. Hmmmm, I'll put some brain-power toward that idea.

As always, you can find out plenty more info on my web site at www.steveweeksmusic.com, follow my comings and goings on my Facebook page, or contact me directly at steve@steveweeksmusic.com.

Thanks again everyone!

 Steve
