Steve Weeks Releases New CD of Lullabies

Colorado Springs, CO – As a family music performer, Steve Weeks has spent most of his career trying to get your kids up and dancing, but with his latest CD “Once I Lived Upon the Sea”, he’s trying to get them to go to sleep.

Steve has already made his mark on the national music scene with 4 critically acclaimed CDs, multiple #1 hits on Sirius XM satellite radio channel 116 (Kids Place Live), and a first place award in the USA Songwriting Competition children's music category.

Although this new album has all the catchy melodies, clever wordplay and sense of whimsy that are signatures of Weeks’ music, it is definitely a new endeavor. The songs in this collection are soft, acoustic pieces that are more likely to have your child in their pajamas, snuggled in bed than jumping up and down on it.

From the gentle bluegrass of “Yellow Jacket” to the water-themed instrumentals “Rain”, “Creek” and “Ocean” to the easy melody of “Dog Beach”, a song about one dog’s pure joy at being let off leash by the sea, Steve creates a peaceful backdrop of guitars, ukuleles and pianos that make the perfect soundtrack for bedtime or any time that you just need a little calming influence in your home.

As always with Steve’s music, adults are not left out. Woven throughout are heartfelt expressions of a parent’s love for their children. “Turn Out the Lights” is as much a parent’s promise as it is a lullaby, and the title track “Once I Lived Upon the Sea” warmly reminds us that being a parent is just another new and beautiful adventure.

“When I write music, I always hope that parents and kids will listen to it together”, Weeks says, “and this album is no exception. I wanted to create songs parents could listen to when they’re rocking their kids to sleep or tucking them in at night.”

Sweet dreams!

“Steve Weeks is a master crafting songs that weave fantastical stories you can somehow see through your ears.”

- Kenny Curtis (Sirius XM Radio)

"He is simply, a great songwriter and storyteller, with a warm voice and solid production values. With clever jokes, word play, varied instrumentation, and evocative vocals, the music puts me in mind of Barenaked Ladies."
