Steve Weeks' New Single

Colorado Springs, CO – What do you get when you give kindie musician Steve Weeks and award-winning film director Dave Franklyn access to paper, glue, scissors, cardboard, paint, and string? Watch the new music video for Steve's latest single "Change of Heart" and you'll find out!

The video, directed and edited by Franklyn, is a colorful romp through an arts and crafts world filled with dancing home-made puppets. This simple approach provides the perfect backdrop to the new single, an up-tempo bluegrass tune about a greedy pig, a grumpy hound dog and Little Miss Fuddy Dud, who all discover that it's never too late to turn a new leaf over. "When Dave started talking about paper pigs and cardboard clouds, I thought maybe he'd lost his mind", says Weeks, "but I've learned to just trust his artistic vision."

Weeks has already made his mark on the national music scene with 4 critically acclaimed CDs, multiple #1 hits on Sirius XM satellite radio channel 78 (Kids Place Live), and a first place award in the USA Songwriting Competition children's music category.

Franklyn, who produces films for the Telly Award winning Pikes Peak Library District's Video Production Center, also directed the live action music video to Steve's hit single "Bartleby Finkleton Will Not Take a Bath."

Greedy Pig, an accomplished paper puppet and star of the film claims to be an Oscar contender for his role although few believe that he is cut out for it.
